PRIVATIZATION AGENCY OF KOSOVO

PRESS RELEASE

Prishtina: On 17 May, 2013, Privatization Agency of Kosovo is informed by electronic media in relation to the so-called agreement for business and technical collaboration between the Consortium NGP and Trepça's representatives, sponsored by Ministry of Natural Resources, Mining and Spatial Planning of Republic of Serbia.

Agency, in the capacity of the Administrator, is not informed on the case in question, and from PAK was not requested approval or previous information for such eventual agreement.

Therefore, the aforementioned eventual agreement is considered that it is in contradiction with legal provisions applicable in the Republic of Kosovo, and as such violates the administrative authority of Privatization Agency of Kosovo; it is invalid and unimplemented in practice.

Pursuant to the Law on Privatization Agency of Kosovo (Law no. 04/L-034), Agency is authorized to administer all Socially Owned Enterprises in Kosovo, including sale authorizations, transfer and the liquidation of these enterprises and their assets.

Pursuant to the Law on the Reorganization of Certain Enterprises and their Assets (Law No. 04/L-035), Privatization Agency of Kosovo is administrator of the Socially Owned Enterprise Trepça under the supervision of Special Chamber of Supreme Court of Kosovo.

Privatization Agency of Kosovo will inform with emergency the Special Chamber of Supreme Court in relation to unilateral and illegal decision of the Trepça's representatives, and it will also inform all local and international institutions in the Republic of Kosovo.
